Founded by sisters Hamida and Yasmine, L'Atelier Green Paris is driven by a passion for beauty and a steadfast commitment to natural cosmetics. The duo was inspired to create the brand after witnessing the detrimental effects of conventional nail polishes and harsh chemical formulas found in semi-permanent products. They felt compelled to bridge the gap between trendy beauty products and eco-consciousness, leading to the birth of L'Atelier Green.

Hamida, affectionately known as the "Green Sister" within her family, has always prioritized natural beauty and health tips. Yasmine, on the other hand, pursued a career in the beauty industry in London, fuelled by her lifelong love for all things beauty. During a summer spent at their grandparents' farm, the sisters had a vision to combine their passions for a green lifestyle and beauty, giving rise to The Beauty & Wellness Convention.
