

PALÁCIO TANGARÁ
SÃO PAULO

Welcome

As you drive through the gates of Palácio Tangará, past an alley of Imperial Palms, you enter a world of classic elegance. São Paulo, Brazil's pulsating capital of business and culture, is beyond the lush ferns of Burle Marx Park, but here our guests luxuriate in an oasis of tranquility. Palácio Tangará is the latest Oetker Collection Masterpiece hotel, offering refined European hospitality combined with the soul of Brazilian warmth.

Destination

São Paulo, one of the largest cities in the world and certainly one of the most dynamic, is bursting with Brazilian creativity. Revealing a vibrant life at the vanguard of style and culture, Sampa hosts a profusion of art and performance, offering a rich cultural scene and an array of entertainment options. The city's cosmopolitan heritage has proved an inspiration for world acclaimed chefs and the continually evolving dining scene is outstanding. Burle Marx Park, that embraces Palácio Tangará, offers a contrasting glimpse of the rainforest, with marmosets playing in the tropical canopy.

Hotel

Palácio Tangará is remarkable for its green surroundings and airy spaciousness. It is designed for relaxation, a peaceful urban oasis in exhilarating São Paulo, with generous heated swimming pools, a fitness centre and elegant spa. The interiors have a true sense of place with local materials used to sophisticated effect and a striking collection of Brazilian art. Days are filled with natural light and evenings are embraced by classic elegance.

Accommodation

All our 141 guestrooms, including 59 suites, have balconies and refreshing green views where guests can relax with the scents and sounds of tropical Brazil. Interiors are defined by light and a generous spaciousness which encompasses the surrounding park. Each has an entrance hall adding to the style of a private home. The Brazilian design team has created rooms of discreet luxury and high personality, commissioning entirely bespoke furnishings. Finally our exceptional service and warm welcome will especially delight our guests.

ABOVE: Prestige Suite's elegant private dining room and refined details
RIGHT: Bespoke Brazilian furnishings

Dining

World renowned Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten opens Palácio Tangará's restaurants in a first for South America. His gastronomy, inspired by lighter Asian methods now combines a hint of Brazil brought to life by Executive Chef Pascal Valero and Chef Felipe Rodrigues. We present a sophisticated restaurant with an exclusive Chef's Table, all day dining lounge, pool bar, elegant wine cellar and a cocktail bar with a cosmopolitan rhythm.

Vast windows embrace the tropical scenery infusing rooms with a refreshing energy, terraces are fringed by lush greenery.

ABOVE AND LEFT: Haute cuisine, Asian zest and a Brazilian twist
LEFT: Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten

ABOVE: The menu travels at a clip collecting inspiration from traditional France, exotic Asia to tropical Brazil
LEFT: Greenery infuses this all-day restaurant with a refreshing energy

ABOVE: Sophistication and syncopation in our bar
RIGHT: Spectacular images of nature bring in a tropical-arty touch

Spa

The Flora Spa is a place of peaceful beauty where facials, body rituals and deft massages will nurture and awaken your senses. Interiors are inspired by the green surroundings; all six treatment rooms are spacious while Sisley phyto-cosmetology treatments are a natural partner. The heat and water oasis soothes limbs prior to treatment and a spa garden, shaded by ferns and palms, invites guests to relax and absorb the transformative effects of their therapy.

ABOVE: Naturally beautiful therapy
RIGHT: An oasis of spacious serenity

Events

For your most prestigious events, Palácio Tangará is absolutely unique in São Paulo. The lush gardens and classic elegance of the hotel are a gift for stylish weddings or fashion shows. Our nine light, energising spaces keep business minds sharp and may dispose of a grand terrace, where you can literally brush your fingertips along the tropical greenery of Burle Marx Park. Events will be managed seamlessly with the refined European hospitality of the Oetker Collection.

ABOVE: Exquisite attention to detail by a team dedicated to excellence

RIGHT: A refreshing elegant angle in São Paulo

ABOVE: Bright energising spaces keep minds sharp
RIGHT: Peaceful green surroundings maintain focus

OETKER COLLECTION
MASTERPIECE HOTELS

www.oetkercollection.com

Palácio Tangará – Rua Dep. Laércio Corte, 1.501 – Panamby – 05706-290 – São Paulo, SP – Brasil
T +55 11 4904 4040 www.palaciotangara.com reservas.tangara@oetkercollection.com

