Frida Kahlo

Frida Kahlo Inspired Afternoon Tea

Inspired by the opening of the most talked about exhibition of the year, Frida Kahlo: Making Her Self Up at the Victoria & Albert Museum, the new afternoon tea by The Lanesborough’s Head Pastry Chef Gabriel Le Quang celebrates the colours, shapes and textures of the life of Mexican artist, Frida Kahlo.

Tea commences with a taste of Agua de Jamaica, the classic Mexican water flavoured with hibiscus typically drank in the Mexican merienda (afternoon tea period).

Alongside traditional scones and accompaniments, and some classic afternoon tea sandwiches, the pastry selection has been inspired by the life of Frida:

Corn sablé with dulce de leche, combining the Mexican tastes of corn and the traditional dulce de leche

Margarita Baba, a classic baba with a Margarita twist using agave and tequila

Carrot Cake, decorated in Frida-esque style

Passion Fruit and Raspberry Éclair, inspired by the work of Frida with Central American flavours

Mexican Chocolate Tartelette, made with Mexican chocolate and garnished with delicate sugar flowers

For the full merienda experience, guests can order hot chocolate or Mexican spiced hot chocolate instead of tea or coffee with their Afternoon Tea.
