Summer 2020 with Oetker Collection

Bathe in the Black Forest

19th century Europe's premier summer destination, Baden-Baden sits within a microclimate that makes summer long and pleasantly mild. But the true charms of this small city are its renowned wellness culture, its proximity to the enchanting Black Forest and the majestic presence of Brenners Park-Hotel & Spa. Brenners, with its many tranquil spaces, is a haven for inspiration and renewal. On 10 June, the hotel reopened for a new season full of surprises. Why not try a round of fishing with Chef Mario Corti? A stroll down the beautiful Lichtentaller Allee, a Black Forest excursion or a spa treatment at Villa Stéphanie? All of these plus the city's historic casino and world-class museums are now open for your enjoyment and exploration.

Return to the Riviera

On 1 July, the doors at Hotel du Cap-Eden-Roc swung open for another legendary season on Cap d'Antibes. To celebrate her 150th birthday, the Grande Dame brings a new dimension to the gastronomic experience. The restaurants have been fabulously redesigned, and a new culinary concept awaits for delicious discovery.

Be amongst the first to experience the splendour.

Le Bristol's renaissance

In Paris, as in every buzzing capital, peaceful green spaces are rare. So rare, in fact, that the mere mention of one evokes daydreams of stillness and fragrant air. Precious and scarce, private gardens are like the new urban holy grail.

Le Bristol's freshly designed courtyard garden by Lady Arabella is just that: a jewel of serenity only steps away from the bustle of Rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré.

Mark your diary for 1 September when Le Bristol's beautifully renewed garden will be unveiled, along with completely redecorated suites.

For London's fittest

The Lanesborough is reopening its luxurious Club & Spa. Beginning 1 August, club members are welcomed back to their favourite address for private classes and revitalising new outdoor training sessions. Still to come... the glamorous Peggy Porschen Afternoon Tea at Celeste.

Seduced by São Paulo

For its reopening, our São Paulo hideaway is creating new fitness experiences with outdoor coaching sessions on the weekends. Soon you can indulge in the rhythm of evenings at Burle Bar, set to live jazz and – you guessed it – bossa nova...
