

Paris, December 2020

Le Bristol Paris to open Christmas Épicerie pop-up boutique
Offering exclusive gourmet delights for festive season shopping

Le Bristol Paris is delighted to welcome holiday shoppers to its very first Christmas Épicerie pop-up boutique. Opening 4 December, the Christmas Épicerie will be accessible directly from the street at 114 rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré. The festive season pop-up will be filled with house made delicacies from Les Ateliers du Bristol: exquisite chocolates from the hotel's in-house chocolate factory; cakes and pâtisserie from award-winning Head Pastry Chef Julien Alvarez's kitchen; living bread produced from Le Bristol's own flourmill; and fine French wines and champagnes handpicked by Sommelier Director Bernard Neveu.

Top must-haves for the festive season include Julien Alvarez's famous marble cake; Fa-Raon's 10th birthday cat-shaped chocolates filled with marshmallow; elegant and fragrant Christmas wreaths; Le Bristol keepsakes such as candles, home fragrance spray and key rings for thoughtful stocking fillers; and smooth hot chocolate for staying warm on an afternoon stroll through the heart of Paris.

The Christmas Épicerie selection will be available to purchase at the hotel and on the Le Bristol Paris website for click-and-collect and home delivery.

Le Bristol's Christmas Épicerie pop-up boutique is Paris' most elegant new address to discover exclusive treats for the festive table, and unique gifts to place underneath the tree.
