30 best new hotels for 2021

11 The Woodward Switzerland

The renovation of this post Haussmann-style mansion on the shores of Lake Geneva is top-notch. Pierre-Yves Rochon, the design guru behind George V in Paris, is in charge of readying the 26 swanky suites for its spring opening. They will come with flamboyant touches such as marble bookcases, as well as views of Mont Blanc. The food will be just as noteworthy given it is by Michelin-starred Joël Robuchon. Wellness is by Maison Guerlain and even its swimming pool will make a splash. At 21m it's the longest in the city.
