LE BRISTOL PARIS WELCOMES NEW HEAD PASTRY CHEF, PASCAL HAINIGUE.

The teams at Le Bristol Paris are delighted to welcome Pascal Hainigue to lead the pastry kitchen.

The world-renowned culinary team at Le Bristol Paris is preparing to welcome an esteemed new member with the arrival of Pascal Hainigue in the role of Head Pastry Chef. Originally from Alsace, a French region known for its rich gastronomic heritage, Hainigue began his career in the kitchens of local patisserie boutiques. His rare talent for the craft has permitted him to rise through the ranks and lead the pastry teams in multiple Michelin starred restaurants.

From the famous Stein patisserie in Buhl, France, Pascal Hainigue went on to work in Alsatian Michelin-starred restaurants Auberge de l'Ill in Illhaeusern and Le Chambard in Kayserberg. Most recently, he was Head Pastry Chef at Le Baudelaire at the Burgundy Hotel in Paris.

Luca Allegri, Oetker Collection's Senior Vice-President Operations and Managing Director at Le Bristol Paris comments, 'We are very honoured to welcome Pascal Hainigue to Le Bristol family. His creative approach is guaranteed to delight our guests.'

Le Bristol's triple Michelin starred Executive Chef, Eric Frechon, comments, 'I recognise in Pascal the desire to constantly push the limits to achieve perfection with creations that are remarkably inventive and simply spectacular. We look forward to welcoming him to the team.'
