Paris, May 2021.

THE WAIT IS OVER.

As signs of life return and summer blooms across the city, Le Bristol Paris is pleased to announce that on May 19th, its magnificent garden reopens, inviting Parisians and travellers to indulge in the art of living with leisurely lunches, effervescent aperitifs, endless dinners and dazzling drinks under the stars in the heart of Paris. ### Summer dining in the garden.

After such a long and challenging period of uncertainty, enjoying the sunny weather with attentive service in good company is a gift we'll never take for granted again. One of the most luxurious places on Earth to relax and recharge is underneath the shade of the blossoming orange trees in Le Bristol's exquisite verdant haven. Le Jardin Français, the hotel's terrace restaurant, will open at noon seven days a week for lunch, afternoon tea, cocktails, and dinner. Here, plates of Lobster rolls intermingle with glasses of chilled rosé de Provence and the finest champagnes. Surrounded by a bounty of dandelions, tulips and roses, Le Jardin Français is where all stress of the day fades gently away.
