Few places in Italy embody the Dolce Vita lifestyle like the fabled island of Capri. This year, the Oetker Collection is raising the bar by reopening the island's first hotel—dating back to 1822—under its über-chic umbrella. The 50-room Hotel La Palma will be Oetker Collection's reimagined incarnation of Capri's most iconic hotel that has long played host to glitterati from all over the world. Set in the midst of vibrant Capri Village, the hotel offers the best of both worlds with its Palma Beach Club in the Marina Piccola just a short drive away.
