

THE LUXURY EDITOR

SAO PAULO

BEST LUXURY HOTELS IN SAO PAULO

The Brazilian city is a financial and industrial powerhouse. As such, it's often visited by business travellers. Found on a plateau of the country's Highlands, it was formed by Jesuit missionaries in 1554 and is now the largest city of the Southern Hemisphere. Immense and dynamic, it's a fascinating place, buzzing with life, city squares, parks and three rivers. Enjoying a temperate climate, it's very pleasant, experiencing its highest temperatures during our wintertime. If you plan on visiting this part of Latin America, these are the hotels you should check out in São Paulo...

Palacio Tangara

This five-star establishment is most unusual for São Paulo, in that it's surrounded by greenery, namely the Burle Marx Park. This provides a real sense of retreat from the city's unrelenting bustle, augmented by its Flora Spa. Palacio Tangara opened in 2017, gathering accolades from Conde Nast, Forbes Travel Guide and the Michelin Guide over the past few years. Multi-awarded Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten opened his first South American restaurant here, serving a blend of French and Asian gastronomy with pops of Brazilian flavour. An alfresco terrace overlooks the outdoor pool and park, while the Burle Bar provides an indoor zone for elegant drinking.