Eden Rock - St. Barths: Arguably the most happening hotel in St. Barts, Eden Rock, open since the 1950s, recently debuted anew after a two-year extensive renovation. AD100 designer Martin Brudnizki and the locally based Architectonik St. Barths worked on a redesign that includes new suites and rooms, a restaurant helmed by Jean-Georges Vongerichten, and a beach bar. A spa with treatments from skincare guru Dr. Barbara Sturm is also new, and owner Jane Matthew has expanded her art collection within the property with pieces by emerging artists via the New York Academy of Art.
