Environmental awareness

Our duty is to offer you the highest quality products that respect both your health and the environment. Available for use in our rooms and suites, the Bamford range of organic bath products provides a luxurious experience in accordance with our values.

Sheets and towels are changed every other day while ensuring you the highest level of comfort.

Since 2017, L'Apogée Courchevel has been committed to conserving the rich cultural and environmental heritage of our region.

SOCIETAL

Engagement with sustainable communities

Our commitment to using local ingredients in our restaurants allows us to offer unique flavours and support regional producers at the same time. Most of our cheeses come from the Savoie region.

As a guest, you can donate to the local community by placing unwanted clothing in the Giving Bag in your closet or dressing room. These items will be given to the Red Cross and redistributed to those in need.

The hotel is a proud supporter of Couchevel's sustainable development initiatives.
