BIANCA

RESTAURANT & BAR

Welcome to Bianca Rooftop, Inspired by the jet set's lifestyle photographed in Capri at the end of the '50s
by the iconic photographer Slim Aarons, who has taken lots of pictures of Bianca Volpato, member of the Italian high society.
The chic and mysterious women embodied the relaxed attitude and lover of the fun of that era.
This Cocktail purpose aims to be a tribute to the characters who made the history of our beautiful island.

LA BELLA CARMELINA

A beautiful and shrewd woman from Capri, tarantella dancer, who invited the travelers, exhausted for Tiberio's climb, to drink a glass of local wine.

PABLO NERUDA

Neruda has been a significant Chilean poet, so much that in 1971 obtained the Nobel Prize for literature. Go to Via Tragara and look for his verses "etched" on the rock.

GEMMA LEMBO

Gemma Lembo and her husband Raffaele, called by everyone "the chef", back in 1934 opened a small restaurant, that had the typical local architecture.
Going by Gemma didn't just mean going to a restaurant, although going into a place where you could feel at home, where Gemma welcomed you as a lady of old times.

GIUSEPPE PAGANO

First owner of the oldest hotel of Capri "La Locanda Pagano", currently Hotel La Palma.
He hosted travelers in his villa for the pure pleasure to entertain long conversations and challenging comparisons. They were poets, writers, architects, painters, players: in exchange, they created murals and paintings, played by the moonlight, wrote poems and songs inspired by the beauties of the place, dipped in the absolute peace, the flourishing nature.
