Tangará Jean-Georges is awarded with a Michelin Star once again

Located in the luxurious Palácio Tangará hotel, in São Paulo, the Tangará Jean-Georges restaurant receives a star in the prestigious gastronomic guide

Chefs Filipe Rizzato, Neusi Machado and team from Tangará Jean-Georges

Tangará Jean-Georges restaurant, has once again been awarded with a Michelin star, solidifying its position amongst the best restaurants in the capital of São Paulo. The only Michelin Starred restaurant located in a hotel in São Paulo, Tangará Jean-Georges resides in the prestigious Palácio Tangará hotel, the extraordinary urban oasis in the heart of the city. The gastronomic concept is an extension of the culinary vision of acclaimed French-American chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten, one of the most influential names in the world's dining scene.

Opened in 2017, Tangará Jean-Georges quickly stood out for its sophistication and excellence. Since then, it has offered an epicurean experience that combines refined French techniques with Asian influences and Brazilian ingredients. Under the command of the Executive Chef Filipe Rizzato and the Restaurant Chef, Neusi Machado, the restaurant delights even the most demanding palates, establishing itself as a mandatory destination for lovers of haute cuisine in the city. The Michelin star, the most prestigious distinction in the world of gastronomy, is a recognition of Tangará Jean-Georges' commitment to quality, creativity, and perfection in service with each dish served. The restaurant team is tirelessly dedicated to providing the most unique and memorable experience for diners, from the rigorous selection of high-quality ingredients to the selection of the best professionals in the market.

Among the many highlights on the menu, visitors can enjoy dishes including “Sealed Foie Gras with Poached Persimmon, Tahiti Lemon and Shissô Leaves” and “Grilled Duck Magret with Spices, Coconut and Lemongrass Infusion, Chilli Pepper and Green Cabbage”. The restaurant also offers an incredible tasting menu, which exemplifies Palácio Tangará’s characteristic concept of contemporary cuisine. The environment of Tangará Jean-Georges contributes to the incomparable experience, with an elegant design that incorporates natural elements and stunning views of Burle Marx Park. The combination of impeccable service, a carefully selected wine list and a welcoming atmosphere make the restaurant a destination itself in the heart of São Paulo.
